

You are cordially invited to attend
United Poultry Concerns' 8th Annual Conference on the topic of

“Cage Free, Animal Friendly, Go Vegan
-What's the Problem?”

Saturday, March 29 - Sunday, March 30, 2008

This conference asks: Is there a conflict between working for welfare reforms and urging people to stop viewing animals as edibles and go vegan? Should activists work to reduce the suffering of billions of chickens and other animals who will never live to see a vegan world, or is such work counterproductive – a moral betrayal of animals? And what about terms like “humane meat,” “compassionate standards,” and “victory”? – What message do they send to the public? We invite you to join the discussion and hear what leaders from within the animal advocacy movement have to say about these issues.

Early Registration: $80. After March 15: $95

To register, send check or money order to UPC, PO Box 150, Machipongo, VA 23405.
